

BCI-Recognised UK LLB Programmes

Fees, duration, and entry requirements for Indian students

About This Guide

This guide lists UK universities offering LLBs recognised by the Bar Council of India. It brings together key academic, admissions, and cost-related information in one place, allowing you to compare options clearly before applying.

All universities listed in this guide offer an LLB (or equivalent undergraduate law degree) that has been identified as BCI-recognised, according to BCI's List of Foreign Universities Offering BCI-Recognised Degrees in Law.

✧ For the most accurate and up-to-date information, we strongly advise you to cross-check programme details with the university and the Bar Council of India before enrolment.

Important notes for Indian students

- BCI recognition is programme-specific, not university-wide
- Programme names and structures may change between intakes
- BCI recognition doesn't remove the requirement to qualify through the All India Bar Examination (AIBE) after graduation

This guide is for informational purposes only. While care has been taken to ensure accuracy at the time of compilation, StudyIn does not guarantee ongoing BCI recognition or unchanged programme details. Please verify all information with the relevant authorities and institutions before applying.

The Bar Council of India recognises foreign law degrees considering the below criteria:

-  University
-  Degree structure
-  Duration
-  Core subjects

You can practise in India, but only by meeting the strict BCI requirements. Make sure your chosen degree aligns with your future career plans.

Important note

- 2-year accelerated LLBs do not meet duration equivalence alone.
- External/distance law degrees are not accepted.
